

Biography

Pastor Daniel Jean-Francois

Ministerial Director, Alaska Conference of Seventh-day Adventists

Pastor Daniel Jean-Francois has a passion for evangelism, godly mentorship, and spiritual education. He grew up in New York City and has served as a Bible Worker, Public University Chaplain, Emanuel Institute Evangelism Training School Associate Director, and Pastor over the past 15 years of his ministry. He believes that God's Words are still relevant today to meet the needs of His people in these Last Days and seeks to address real-life issues with practical Biblical application. He and his wife Laura reside in Alaska, where he serves as Ministerial Director and Pastor of the Anchorage Northside Seventh-day Adventist Church. He enjoys spending time with his family, traveling, exploring beautiful Alaska, and giving Bible Studies.
